TREACHER'S HIGHLAND MALT WHISKEY.

CASH, Rs. 27; and CREDIT, Rs. 30 PER DOZ.

THIS genuine Malt Spirit was for many years imported direct by a few Gentlemen of Bombay for their own Consumption and attained a very considerable private reputation. The suggestion was made to Treacher & Co., Ld., that they should give this Whiskey a trial, and importations were then made. Its introduction into the Indian Market was attended with the most favourable results, it being very highly spoken of by everyone. It has continued to grow in favour, and is now regularly supplied to a large number of Clubs, Messes, and Private Consumers. Treacher's Highland Malt Whiskey is the sole production of a very old Distillery in the Highlands, which confines itself entirely to the distillation of this fine Spirit. Before being bottled, it is allowed to mature in wood for some years until it has acquired an agreeable odour, and a delicious, full mellow flavour, much appreciated by Connoisseurs.

NOTE.—Purchasers of Treacher's Highland Malt Whiskey should observe that each Label and Capsule contains both the Company's Trade Mark, and the words "Phœnix Brand" stamped thereon.

SPENCER AND CO.'S CIGARS.

CAUTION!

IT has come to our personal knowledge that many unscrupulous Native Firms, with and without European designations, in Trichinopoly are manufacturing and supplying dealers in the Punjab and North-West Provinces, with Cigars of similar shapes and sizes as ours, and bearing the same names as those of our manufacture, such as:—

"SALISBURYS," "FLOR DE SUMATRAS,"
"BEACONSFIELDS," "GOLD MOHURS,"

with the questionable intention of leading the Public to believe that the inferior, and in most cases worthless, articles sold by them to the aforesaid dealers are Cigars manufactured by us.

We beg to draw special notice to the fact that every box of Cigars sent out by us has the Registered Trade Mark of our Firm branded on the lid, and that a facsimile of our signature appears on the end Label; and to say that any Cigars, bearing the following names, viz.:—

"SALISBURYS," "IMPERIALS," "MAYOS,"
"BEACONSFIELDS," "SUMATRAS," "LITTLE RANDOLPHS,"
"GOLD MOHURS," "BORNEOS," & "SIESTAS," not bearing our Brand and Signature, as above stated, are Spurious Imitations of our now much-appreciated Brands.

THE "BLÜTHNER" PIANOFORTES.

BOUDOIR AND CONCERT GRANDS AND COTTAGES

BY the above maker, are now being monthly received at their Bombay Agency, and are offered at Manufacturer's Prices, plus Rs. 60 for freight and incidental charges.

Though low priced, these high-class instruments stand HIGHEST in the estimation of Western civilisation. The Factory is the largest in Europe, manufacturing no less than 3,000 Pianos every year, which, reduced to a minimum, will exhibit the extraordinary fact of one Piano in every working hour of the day.

Another feature very remarkable with these Pianos is their sweetness and richness of tone their perfect and never failing mechanism, delicacy of touch, and last, but not least, the length of time they keep in tune, which is twice or thrice as long as the best Pianos—a fact which is an important advantage to Mofussil Residents.

We invite inspection of these splendid Pianos, and will send Messrs. T. Blüthner's own Illustrated Price List free on application.

THE STABBING AFFRAY AT THE STONE BUNDER.—Assong Allai, Yussoof Ream, and Phono, three Siamese seamen from the s. s. Queen of England, on bail, appeared before Mr. Richardson, Third Presidency Magistrate, at the Esplanade Police Court, yesterday, on the charge of assault by stabbing, on April 14, and abetment in the commission of the offence. The first prisoner, as has already been reported, attacked Feroz Moheera, a Seedee youth, at Stone Bunder, on the night in question, with a knife, and stabbed him on his left side, inflicting a wound, from which the blood flowed profusely. The master of the Seedee, a Mogul merchant, was walking a few paces ahead of him, and hearing the cries of his servant, who was held down by the other accomplices, rushed up, and arrested the first prisoner, who was made over to the police. The Magistrate convicted Assong of the offence, and sentenced him to undergo four months' rigorous imprisonment. The other two sailors were discharged.

CHEATING A BRIDEGROOM.—Mr. C. P. Cooper, Chief Presidency Magistrate, yesterday heard the case in which Purshotum Dewjee and Moteeram Toolseedass were charged by Arjoon Shamjee, a fruit-dealer, with cheating, and committed them to take their trial at the next Criminal Sessions. Mr. Shewshunker appeared on behalf of the accused, and Mr. Sanders Slater, barrister-at-law, for the complainant, who stated in his information filed on the 7th February that on expressing a wish to get married after the demise of his first wife, the two accused and three others conspired together to procure him a young wife, a Lohana by caste. On this representation, the complainant advanced various sums of money, amounting altogether to Rs. 900, to defray the marriage and miscellaneous expenses. After the couple had been united according to the customs of the caste, the husband, Arjoon Shamjee, learnt to his surprise that his new bride was a widow of another caste, and was known by quite a different name than that given by the accused persons. It was under these circumstances that process was applied for, and the Magistrate issued warrant for the apprehension of the offenders. Three of these, however, absconded to Kathiawar, and are still at large. The woman, Ruttonbai, attended on a summons. The prisoners reserved their defence till placed upon their trial in the High Court.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 14.

A TELEGRAM to hand late this evening announces, as we anticipated, an advance in the Bank of England rate to-day, say of one per cent., making the rate stand at 5 per cent., from which it would appear that there is no improvement in the financial position in London, in connection with the state of things in Portugal. The market rates of discount were further put up ½ per cent. yesterday on short London Bills, and ½ per cent. on six months' sight Indian Bank Paper to 4½ and 4½ respectively. Consols, however, were ⅛ per cent. higher, at 95⅝; and about £175,000 in Gold had been paid into the Bank of England. Bar Silver was ⅛d. per oz. cheaper, at 44⅛d.; but Rupee Securities were ⅜ per cent. in each denomination at £74⅜ for Fours, and £76½ for 4½ per cents.; and in New York, the metal was ⅛ cent lower, at 97½, with demand Exchange on London unaltered, at 4·88½ dollars. The Bombay Gazette

FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1891.

THE affairs of Manipur have on several occasions formed the subject of anxious questions in Parliament. On Tuesday evening Lord Ripon called the attention of Government to what he called a summary which appeared in the Pioneer of the 17th April of a Government proclamation putting heavy sums on the heads of the Regent, the Senapati, and those of the Councillors and Generals who were concerned in the outbreak at Manipur. These words appear in a paragraph of the Allahabad paper of that date. But they do not profess to be taken textually from the proclamation, which again was not stated to have been issued by the Government, but by the Chief Commissioner of Burma, in view of the possible flight into that province of the Manipuri nobles in question. Lord Cross, in stating that he felt sure that the Viceroy had never issued the proclamation referred to in the Pioneer of the 17th April, was perfectly correct; that proclamation was not issued by the Supreme Government. It would have been unbecoming on the part of the Government of India to set a price on the heads of the revolted feudatories against whom an army of five thousand men had been set in motion. Soldiers in the field do not rely upon the methods which are usual when the police have a case in hand, and desire to discover the whereabouts of fugitives from justice. It is quite another thing for the Commissioner of Burma to take anticipatory measures for the arrest of desperadoes seeking seclusion in what is now a peaceful province. It is true that in a telegram from Kohima, dated the 19th April, and published on the 21st, it is stated that a proclamation had been issued by General Collet and General Graham announcing the deposition of the Regent of Manipur, for acts amounting to rebellion against the Empress. A reward of Rs. 5,000, it was added, "has been offered for the capture of the Regent or the Senapati, and Rs. 2,000 each for minor members of the Royal family; or any official concerned in the late affair." Was this proclamation issued on the sole authority of General Collett and General Graham? Lord Cross's answer in the House of Lords would naturally be taken to imply that this was the case. General Collett has supreme military and political control in Manipur, and he might deem it advisable to promise a reward for the arrest of those implicated in the recent outbreak. That officer in the ultimatum sent an answer to the Maharajah's letter repudiating responsibility for what had occurred, stated that those concerned should surrender unconditionally, but promised that if the Regent gave himself up, he would have a trial. It is characteristic that the Secretary of State pleaded ignorance in almost identical terms to the question put by Lord Ripon as to whether it was in accordance with the instructions of the Government of India that the Jubraj was invited to a Durbar with the intention of arresting him when he came. The reply of Lord Cross was that he did not suppose that the Government of India had given any such instructions.

Sir John Gorst—who has returned from his voyage to Teneriffe—when replying to a similar interrogatory in the House of Commons carefully avoided any expression that might be taken to prejudge the matter. The Under-Secretary promised that the instructions given to the Chief Commissioner, Mr. Quinton, and all the communications which had passed between the Secretary of State and the Government of India, will be placed before Parliament when the despatch now on its way arrives in England. This despatch will probably be laid on the table of the House in the course of the present week, and we shall then know for the first time what latitude was given to the Chief Commissioner when sent on the mission which eventuated so disastrously. That recent events in Manipur will be the subject of prolonged and vehement discussion in Parliament is certain. Sir John Gorst was nearly a month since put through his catechism with regard to a statement in the Times that orders had been issued that all villages in Manipur which offered resistance were to be burned. He was asked whether that order had been issued with the sanction of the Secretary of State for India, and if not whether he would enjoin on commanders of columns that no villages should be burned for offering resistance unaccompanied by cruelty to wounded or to prisoners, or by treachery on the part of that particular village. Sir John Gorst replied that the Secretary of State had received no official account of the operations of the troops at Manipur, but that he had the fullest confidence that the Government of India would act with due regard to the principle of justice and mercy as is always the case in these frontier wars. When pressed as to whether as a matter of fact the statement in the Times was correct, and if so whether orders would be given that no villages should be burned down except where such a measure might be justified under the rules of civilised warfare, the Under-Secretary very properly replied that it was not right to assume that the Government of India would act improperly, and that no steps would be taken until there was evidence to show that they were required. Sir John Gorst in answer to a further question from Colonel Nolan expressed very emphatically his concurrence in the principle that nothing should be done in the Manipur expedition "in a different manner from that in which a German column would probably act against France in a European war." As we now know this discussion was quite thrown away. The Manipuris made no pretence of resistance; the villagers regarding the advancing columns as a friendly force, and have with their own hands handed the Regent over to the British authorities. The only burning that has taken place has been the work of the Manipuris, who set fire to the Regent's Palace and the adjacent buildings, on the advance of our columns. They executed sentence on themselves in a most exemplary fashion.

The general principle laid down is, nevertheless of considerable importance. The Allahabad paper is astounded at the notion of laying down a rule regulating or controlling the burning of villages by troops on the march, and asserts that Sir John Gorst's answer sets up a perfectly impossible standard for commanding officers, not only in Manipur, but in all frontier wars. It is argued that wars cannot be carried on according to the laws of civilised warfare when one side are barbarians, who can only be reduced to submission by the free destruction of their villages and their crops. Without stopping to inquire whether this way of putting the matter does not a little resemble a begging of the question, it is well to note for practical purposes that Sir John Gorst, representing the Government and speaking in the House of Commons, did not take the view of the matter which appears to the writer to be the only one possible. He gave an unhesitating and emphatic assent to the broad principle that the rules of civilised war, which are and must be observed in Europe, should be—mutatis mutandis—observed in frontier wars in Manipur or elsewhere. It should not be lightly assumed that the superiority of a well-organised military force, armed with weapons of precision, cannot be brought home to half-armed villagers, unless the lesson of defeat be followed up by burning their villages and destroying their property and crops. This rough-and-ready way of impressing the logic of events on the barbarian mind has simplicity, but little else, to recommend it. For long ages similar methods were deemed necessary in European warfare; just as the use of torture was deemed essential to the discovery of truth by courts of law; but such practices have been abandoned, not wholly on humanitarian grounds, but as superfluous, and "wanting in finish." Besides, public opinion has to be counted with, especially in these days when every incident of war is telegraphed to London, and flames on placards before the sun goes down which witnessed it. Quite apart from this aspect of the matter—which is more likely to receive due consideration at the hands of Sir John Gorst in the House of Commons, than at those of a critic in the mofussil—there is the teaching of this very Manipur business to inculcate the lesson that it is sound policy to keep on the best terms possible with our friend the enemy. The care with which Captain Presgrave cultivated the good-will of the villagers during his advance to the succour of Lieutenant Grant was mainly instrumental in procuring the necessary supplies, and undoubtedly contributed to the ready submission which facilitated the progress of the columns converging on Manipur a little later. The best spirit has been shown by the commanders and the troops. There has been nothing to justify either the anxiety of Colonel Nolan that orders should be issued to prevent the needless burning of villages, or that of our contemporary lest Sir John Gorst should in a moment of inadvertence "set up an impossible standard before our commanders." The commanders found no difficulty in acting up to a very high standard in accomplishing their task and pacifying Manipur.

IT is a fact of no little importance in connection with the proposal to amend the Small Causes Court Act, in order to help the Calcutta Court to do its business, that while the four judges at Calcutta found a little over twenty-six thousand cases too many for them last year, the same number of judges in the Bombay Small Causes Court had 32,412 suits on their files. The Calcutta Court, it is true, shows somewhat to advantage in regard to the number of cases pending at the end of the year. These numbered 2,203; in Bombay there were 3,296, or about three hundred more than at the end of 1889. The Calcutta Court, on the other hand, had 646 suits pending for more than three months at the close of the year, Bombay having only 619. When in 1889 the Government of India looked into the statistics showing the average duration of suits in the Small Causes Courts at Calcutta, Bombay, and Madras, they came to the conclusion that the delay in disposing of suits at Calcutta was due to the manner in which the Judges at Calcutta transacted their business, rather than to any defects in the law. The average duration of uncontested suits in Bombay last year was 35½ days: of contested suits 45½ days: the Calcutta average, with the same number of Judges as at Bombay, was, we have seen, several days higher. In the face of facts such as these, it will be exceedingly difficult for Government to show that their view in 1889 was not the right one, and that it is not in a defect in the Act, but in those who administer it, that the cause of mischief arises. A copy of the Bombay return would, we suspect, be a much more effective answer to the complaints of the Calcutta Chief Judge—as well as to those of the High Court Judges who have reported upon the working of the Court—than any other that Government could give. But the Judges, so far as we can see, have not in their numerous communications dealt with the subject comparatively; had they done so, they would have sought in another direction for the cause of delay and inefficiency. It may be that on other grounds a justification for the amendment of the Act of 1882 could be found. Much, for example, is to be said in favour of making the jurisdiction of the High Court concurrent with that of the Small Cause Court in suits over Rs. 1,000 in value, as this would give a suitor the opportunity of learning what the defence is. But this is an advantage which he would not in all cases care to pay for, and for that reason an absolute reversion to the old Rs. 1,000 limit should not be resorted to, if there is no other reason for it than the inability of the Calcutta Court to get through its work as quickly as it ought to do. It has been proposed to lighten the burden of work by adapting the English County Court procedure under which a plaintiff suing for a debt or liquidated money demand may take out a special summons, based upon an affidavit requiring the defendant within a limited time to give notice of his intention to contest the claim, and intimating that if he does not do so, judgment will be entered up against him. It will be interesting to see how this scheme commends itself to those who have had experience of the working of the Small Cause Courts in India. It would scarcely be free from risk. Summonses might be served upon the wrong people, who would not think it necessary to correct the errors of the process-server, and judgment might be entered upon an unsupported claim without giving the defendant an opportunity of resisting it. A change of this kind ought not to be lightly made, nor should English precedent be too hastily applied to Indian practice. And in regard to all the suggestions which have been made for an amendment of the Act of 1882, it should be remembered that the occasion for them is the discovery that only one out of three Presidency Small Causes Courts cannot keep pace with its work.

QUESTIONS were asked in the House of Commons some weeks since concerning certain recent enhancements in the land revenue of the Central Provinces. The Administration Report of the Land Revenue in the Central Provinces last year, while it has nothing to say upon the specific instances referred to in Mr. Burt's question, makes no attempt at concealing the fact that the land revenue is rising in a very appreciable degree. The demand for the current year is over 67 lakhs. For last year it was 65½ lakhs; for 1888-89 it was 63½ lakhs. The increases, it is explained, are due to revenue enhancements effected in the course of the current revision of the settlement; but it is admitted that "the rise on the provincial land revenue has been very considerably larger than was anticipated when the current five-years' contract was framed." Of this fact at least as careful note will be taken at Simla as at Westminster. If it is feared that the enhanced demands were met with difficulty, the official statement gives reason for thinking that this was not so.

PURE PERSONALITIES.

Mr. Robbert Barrett Browning, his wife, and aunt (sister of the late poet) are leaving De Vare-gardens in toto for Venice end of this month. Between eighty and ninety enormous cases of furniture are on their way to the Palazzo Rezzonico. But the Brownings intend spending a few weeks every year in London, either in an hotel or in a flat. They have bought a pretty house at Azolo with a large garden where they intend spending the summer months when Venice is too sultry. Mrs. Robert Barrett Browning is an American, with a large fortune. She is comely, stout and fair; but her health is not good. Mr. Browning suffers from gout. He is forty-two years of age, middle height, bald and good-natured looking. Of late years he has not been able to devote much time to his paintings. He is very hospitable; the Palazzo Rezzonico is generally filled with friends, chiefly Americans. It is furnished with great splendour. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrett Browning have no children.

The Americans are much interested in Mrs. Besant, and have given her a cordial welcome. She has been interviewed and described by scores of repoters. The New York Tribune says that "Mrs. Besant looks like a plump, rosy-cheeked little Englishwoman. But she is Irish, for 'she herself has said it'; and she said it twice in her conversation with the reporter. This proclamation of her nationality is necessary to one who should judge her by her speech, in which the ever gentle, sweet and low accents of Cordelia are turned to the clear, liquid, but soft tones which give that charm peculiar to the voices of educated Englishwomen." The subjects of Mrs. Besant's lecture, which she has delivered to large audiences in New York, Washington, and Boston are "London: its Wealth and its Poverty," "Dangers Menacing Society," "Labor Movements in the Old World," and "Theosophy."

Mr. Henry Christie, of Sunderland, who won the Draughts Championship of England recently, is a dark-complexioned young fellow of twenty-three. He is a shipbuilder by trade, and had the misfortuue to lose an eye while at work some two years ago. Mr. Christie has played the game nearly all his life, and showed phenomenal powers on the board while still an infant. At seven years of age he met Mr. Brown, a South Shields player of repute—and beat him. Since then he has studied the game to some purpose, and at the present time has no equal, in this country at least. Unlike most champion draught-players Mr. Christie is nothing if not original, and while he knows the value of playing by "the book," he still more appreciates the confusion into which one of his daring moves may throw an opponent. He is as cool as a veteran, and his "Newcassel" accent is rather "thick."

Mr. Spurgeon has a strong partiality for the fragrant weed. On Sunday evenings after the service at the Tabernacle he may be seen reclining in the cushions of his carriage and puffing away at his pipe as he is driven home. He says that after a hard day's work he finds a smoke has a soothing and restful effect upon his nerves. Westwood, his home at Beulah-hill, Norwood, is perhaps the finest place owned by a dissenting person in this country. He has a magnificent collection of plants, shrubs, &c., from all parts of the world. The grounds are laid out on a most lavish scale, and all the appointments of the place are in keeping.

Mr. Spurgeon has sometimes been remonstrated with by persons more orthodox than himself—if such can be conceived—for driving on Sunday. His retort is that he is under grace, while his horses are under the law, so that their Sabbath comes on the Saturday and his own on the Sunday, which is a most convenient arrangement. But it is a fact that he takes care the animals shall have at least one day's rest in seven, which is both prudent and humane. The reporter's transcript of his Sunday morning's sermon has to be in his hands by seven o'clock on Monday morning, when he carefully revises the MS. Whether he makes any provision or stipulation for the shorthand writer's rest day does not transpire.

"Redshield," who goes for some of the City editors of the London newspapers in the World, is Mr. Joseph C. Parkinson, a well-known member of the Reform Club. Years ago he was a descriptive writer on the Daily News and All the Year Round. Since then he has acquired a large fortune by judicious speculation. Amongst other property he is the owner of large vineyards in Bungary. He married the daughter of Sir George Elliott, that shrewd man of business, who, from being a miner, has blossomed forth into a full-blown millionaire.

Mr. Parkinson is a little bit perhaps on the wrong side of middle age, but no one who has seen him and remarked his tall, athletic frame, his active ways, and his raven-like hair and beard, would take him for more than fifty. Like his father-in-law, he is a thorough man of business. There is a story of his having bought a horse somewhere out Wimbledon way and then when he got tired of it having sold it at a profit in consequence of an article he wrote to prove by hook or by crook that that very house was in some way connected with some of the most memorable events in British history. For some time passed he has had a considerable pecuniary interest in the World, which now has two editors, "Moi-Meme" and lui-meme.

The French have no old soldier who equals in age our "Father of the Fleet," Sir Provo Wallis, but they have a "Father of the Army" in M. Soufflot, who is 98, and who, it seems, has been neglected by his countrymen. He entered the army in 1810, and fought in Napoleon's campaigns of 1810, 1811, 1812, 1813, 1814, and at Waterloo, when he was a captain in the Imperial Lancers. He was made Chevalier of the Legion of Honor in 1813, but has had no more honors conferred upon him. He has not even been promoted to a Commandership in the Legion of Honor.

"It is one of the paradoxes of the time," says Piccadilly, in presenting a portrait of Mrs. Gladstone, "that the wife of perhaps the most Radical Prime Minister of the century should be co-heiress of one of the most ancient and historic baronies of the kingdom. It would not be an unprecedented combination of circumstances that would authorise Mrs. Gladstone to be patented as Baroness Percy in her own right. The barony of which she is co-heiress dates from 30 April, 1557. Eight days hence, therefore, will be the tercentenary of its creation. It is worthy of remark that the present Duke of Northumberland, who also represents the Percys in the female line, possesses his Percy peerage only from 22 Oct., 1766."

"Mrs. Gladstone is so quiet, so peaceful, so unbellicose a lady, that it would be more appropriate to one's previously-conceived ideas of the fitness of things if not Mrs. but Mr. Gladstone carried about in his veins the blood of Hotspur. When all is said and done, when the last say of venemous detraction has been uttered, this fact stands out—that it is a blessing there has been found a woman consistent enough and capable of so much inherent constancy and loyalty to follow her husband through the marvellous mazes of almost incomprehensible change of opinion and action as Mrs. Gladstone. To follow any one man for half a century is in itself a wonder; but to do so when you are not certain what he will next attempt proves that Mrs. Gladstone has added fidelity to faith and love-labor."

In a sketch of Mr. W. H. Smith, the Weekly Gallery of Celebrities describes the leader of the House as follows:—"Mr. Smith bears the reputation of being a kindly-hearted and charitable man, with an unobtrusiveness which is not to be mistaken for diffidence, and a thoroughness which does not halt at half measure, and he is a hard worker. He may be regarded as a survival of the older type of a British Parliamentarian, rather than one of the newer school. He is, perhaps, never too brilliant, but he is always thorough, and he has possibly more claim to eminence on account of his plodding attention to business details, rather than as a contributor to the liveliness of debate."

Miss Ada S. Ballin is a clever little lady, who has sprung from a Jewish stock. She has the refinement of the higher types of her race, and a fair share of its facial comeliness. Although she is a spinster, yet she has a Baby, and the fact is stricly proper. She tends and dresses it, editorially, once a month, and with care. She has large, dark eyes, and a quiet manner, which can grow animated. Miss Ballin is, or was, a lecturer for the National Health Society, and delivers an address gracefully. She is one of a family possessed of useful talents.

The Dean of Christ Church (Dr. Liddell), preaching in the Cathedral at Oxford, told the following anecdote of Earl Granville. When he came up to Oxford as a young man he was rather backward in book-learning, and Lord Canning observed that his mind was like an uncultivated garden, and the wonder was that it was so free of weeds. Lord Granville (then Mr. Leveson) took, however, such pains with his education that he obtained his degree within two years after his matriculation in the University.

ABBEY'S EFFERVESCENT POTASH

COOLING! INVIGORATING! REFRESHING!

Mr. Sims Reeves.

Mr. SIMS REEVES says:—"This preparation is a great boon; simple, refreshing and efficacious."

MADAME MARIE ROZE (the renowned singer) says:—"I have used your Effervescent Potash with remarkable results. It is really wonderful."

It Prevents and Cures Indigestion.
It Purifies the Blood and Preserves the Bloom of Youth.
It is a natural Tonic and most pleasant Drink

There was sickness in Olympus; all the gods were slightly ill;
Jove himself had got a headache, Juno thought she'd take a pill;
Venus languished in her beauty, Bacchus, too, felt very queer,
He'd been drinking all last evening very potent bitter beer.
Tired of nectar and nepenthe, some new drink they wished to find;
Something to refresh the body, and invigorate the mind;
Long they sought, then found and carried up to heaven's high azure vault,
Sparkling, in a crystal goblet, ABBEY'S EFFERVESCENT SALT.
When they drank the magic liquid, vanished every ache and pain,
Bacchus pulled himself together; Venus felt herself again.
Then said Jove, "When gods approve it, sure it is those mortals' fault,
If they suffer any ailment, since they can get ABBEY'S SALT."
Pleasant 'tis, and most refreshing, and disease it keeps away.
I myself shall, in the future, take one glassful every day;
As a drink it far surpasses all that's made from hop or malt.
'Tis the best of all inventions—"ABBEY'S EFFERVESCENT SALT."

IMPORTANT TO ALL.

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT"

is absolutely necessary for the preservation of Health.

YOU cannot overstate its great value in keeping the BLOOD PURE; as a means of keeping the system clear, and thus taking away the groundwork of Malarious Diseases, BLOOD POISONS, and all Liver Complaints, or as a HEALTH-GIVING, REFRESHING, COOLING, and INVIGORATING BEVERAGE, or as a gentle Laxative or Tonic in the various forms of Indigestion ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" is invaluable.

IT IS THE BEST PREVENTIVE AND CURE FOR

Biliousness. Sick Headache. Unnatural Excitement.
Mental Depression. Giddiness. Errors in Diet.
Skin Eruptions. Liver Derangements. Thirst, &c
Constipation. Feverishness. Impure Blood.

A SPARKLING AND REFRESHING DRAUGHT.—Notwithstanding its medicinal value, the "FRUIT SALT" must be looked upon as essential as breathing fresh air, or as a simple and safe beverage under ALL CIRCUMSTANCES, and may be taken as a sparkling and refreshing draught in the same way as Lemonade, Soda Water, Potass Water, &c., only it is much cheaper and BETTER, IN EVERY SENSE OF THE TERM, TO AN UNLIMITED EXTENT.

HEALTHY BILE.—When the liver is not making healthy bile, or insufficient quantity, the blood becomes impure—the groundwork of disease, and produces constipation, dyspepsia, Biliousness, headache, &c. ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" is the best remedy.

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" versus BRANDY.—"There were a few attacks of mild dysentery, brought mainly on by ill-considered devotion to brandy, or biliousness produced by the same cause. For the latter we used ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT,' which is simply invaluable."—Coral Lands, Vol. I.

HOT COUNTRIES.—ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, &c.—"I have personally used ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT,' and know it not alone to be excellent, but really invaluable. Especially must this be the case in the hot countries of the East, where Acidity of the Stomach, Biliousness, and Fevers are so common."—J. M. Peebles, M.D., Author of Around the World, Travels in Polynesia, China, India, Arabia, Egypt, &c., &c.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.—"A new invention is brought before the public, and commands success. A score of abominable imitations are immediately introduced by the unscrupulous, who, in copying the original closely enough to deceive the public, and yet not so exactly as to infringe upon legal rights, exercise an ingenuity that, employed in an original channel, could not fail to secure reputation and profit."—Adams.

CAUTION.—Legal Rights are protected in every civilised country. Examine each bottle and see that the Capsule is marked ENO'S "FRUIT SALT." Without it you have been imposed on by a WORTHLESS IMITATION. Sold by all Chemists, &c. Prepared only at ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" WORKS, Pomeroy St., London, S.E., by J. C. ENO'S Patent.
